- 8. Plaintiff complied with the terms of this mortgage and note, including making monthly payments.
- On or about September 30, 2009, MERS assigned the Mortgage to BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP, FKA Countrywide Home Loans Servicing, LP, as recorded at Liber 41522, Page 706.
- 10. In February 2011, foreclosure proceedings were commenced.

- 13.At the Sheriff's sale, Bank of America, NA Successor by Merger to BAC Home Loan Servicing LP, FKA Countrywide Home Loans Servicing, allegedly bought the property back.

Count I Defective Foreclosure

- 14. Plaintiff realleges the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 13.
- 15. The foreclosure proceedings instituted by Defendant Bank of America were defective and invalid, because Defendant Bank of America did not meet requirements of MCLA 600.3204, which governs who may institute a foreclosure by advertisement.
- 16.MCLA 600.3204(1)(d) states that a party foreclosing a mortgage by advertisement must be either: the owner of the indebtedness, or of an interest in the indebtedness secured by the mortgage or the servicing agent of the mortgage.
- 17. The Defendant Bank of America does not meet said criteria.
- 18. The chain of ownership of Plaintiff's mortgage and note is as follows:
 - a. Countrywide was the original mortgagor with MERS as nominee.
 - b. MERS assigned the mortgage to BAC.
 - c. The note was never assigned, only the mortgage.
 - d. Defendant Bank of America is now the assignee of the mortgage only.

- 24. The Sheriff's deed is defective in that Defendant Bank of America did not pay the amount of the bid.
- 25. If the transfer and/or assignment is invalid, the mortgage itself and the sale is void and unenforceable as:
 - a. Bank of America does not possess any rights to enforce the underlying indebtedness;
 - Bank of America cannot foreclose as I does not meet the requirements of MCL 600.3402(1);

Count II Defective Notice

- 26. Plaintiff realleges the allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 25.
- 27. Based upon information and belief, Plaintiff believes that Defendants began foreclosure proceedings against their mortgage by advertisement.
- 28. A foreclosure by advertisement is a statutory remedy.
- 29. The Notice of Foreclosure sale identified Bank of America as the mortgagor.
- 30. The Notice states that MERS assigned the mortgage to Bank of America. The notice makes no reference to the date of the assignment or any identification of recoding the assignment.
- 31. The Mortgage was recorded with the Oakland County Register of Deeds.
- 32. Bank of America improperly attempted to foreclose by advertisement, failing to follow statute.
- 33. The Notice of Foreclosure Sale was not posted on the Premises as required by statute.
- 34. The Notice of Foreclosure Sale was not mailed to the premises, as required by the mortgage documents.

- 35. Defendants failed to substantially comply with the terms and provisions of the statute for foreclosure by advertisement.
- 36. The foreclosure sale of August 2011 was not properly conducted as required by law.
- 37. Bank of America lacked the authority to foreclose, because Bank of America never owned any interest in the underlying debt.
- 38.Bank of America lacked the authority to foreclose because Bank of America never had an equitable interest in the Note.

Count III Breach of Contract

- 39. Plaintiff realleges the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38.
- 40. By entering into the Mortgage, Plaintiff entered into a contract.
- 41. Every contract contains an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.
- 42. Defendant Bank of America breached its obligation to act in good faith and fair dealing by:
 - a. Bank of America or its agents participated in and allowed improper assignments of the mortgage and mortgage note.
 - b. Bank of America or its agents failed to disclose to Plaintiffs it lack of ownership of the indebtedness.
 - c. Bank of America or its agents failed to act in good faith in processing loan modification processes.
- 43. That at all times during the foreclosure proceedings, Plaintiff would have repeatedly expressed his desire to retain his home.
- 44. Plaintiff seeks issuance of a Temporary Restraining Order for reasons that the redemption expired and that without the order, he will suffer irreparable harm in losing interest in his home.

- 45. Plaintiff does not know, but has a right to know who was and who is currently in physical possession of his contract.
- 46. Plaintiff does not know, but has a right to know whether the Note has been sold or transferred to any other person, and if so the identity and dates of the transfer.
- 47 Plaintiff has the right to know the identity of all individuals who are entitled to receive payments under the contract.
- 48. Plaintiff has a right to know the identity of all persons who have a right to enforce the Note.

Wherefore, Plaintiffs request this Honorable Court grant the following relief:

- a. That the Court set aside the foreclosure proceeding;
- b. That this Court order Defendant Bank of America to commence a fair and honest loan modification process.
- c. That this Court consider this complaint for the immediate issuance of a Temporary Restraining Order, ordering a stay of all foreclosure proceedings including transfer of title.
- d. Order Defendants to identify the person who has physical possession of the Note, who claims to have right to receive payments and who can enforce the Note;
- e. That this Court order any other relief which this Court deems fair, reasonable and just.

f. This Court award Plaintiff costs and attorney fees.

Respectfully submitted,

Ву:

MOTION FOR A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND SHOW CAUSE

Plaintiff requests that this court issue a temporary restraining order and an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued pursuant to MCR 3.310 for the following reasons and those outlined in the attached brief in support:

- 1. On May 16, 2012, Plaintiff filed a verified complaint with the court.
- 2. As stated in Plaintiff's verified complaint, Defendants fraudulently foreclosed on Plaintiff's property.
- 3. At a termination of tenancy hearing on May 3, 2012, the Court issued an Order that Bank of America may evict the Plaintiff as of May 14, 2012. (See Exhibit 1)
- 4. Plaintiff has filed this lawsuit as Bank of America is not a lien holder in this matter.
- 5. With a possible eviction pending anytime after May 14, 2012, Plaintiff and her family continue to reside in the home with this threat.

- 6. As stated in Plaintiff's verified complaint, unless Defendants are enjoined from district court eviction proceedings, Plaintiff will be irreparably harmed.
- 7. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.
- 8. Plaintiff wants to proceed with this case to ensure she is able to save her home.
- 9. Any delay in the issuance of a temporary restraining order until the hearing on a preliminary injunction will result in the following immediate and irreparable harm: Plaintiffs will be evicted and lose their home.

Plaintiff requests that this court order the following:

- 1. Defendant is enjoined and restrained, whether alone or in concert with others, including any officer, agent, representative, and/or employee from proceeding with foreclosure proceedings on Plaintiff's property, 490 Cherry Tree Lane, Rochester Hills, Michigan.
- 2. This order shall remain in full force and effect until this court specifically orders otherwise.
- 3. Defendant shall show cause before this court on $\frac{(c)/2c/12}{2c/12}$ at $\frac{83^{\circ}}{2c}$, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, why a preliminary injunction should not be ordered according to the terms and conditions set forth above.
